National Reining Breeders Classic

Ancillary Champions Crowned

Novice Horse Open Levels 1, 2, & 3 Champions Jared Leclair & Sparkling Magnum

Aboard Sparkling Magnum, Jared Leclair claimed the championship in all three levels of the Open Novice Horse at the National Reining Breeders Classic with a score of 148. The mare is owned by Lisa Mauzerall and was bred by Wendy Hausner.

A win with Sparkling Magnum, a 2018 mare by Magnum Chic Dream out of Electric Sparkle, has been a long time coming for Leclair.

“Gloria showed this mare last year and got her broke for our program, and I’d ask her throughout the year, ‘is she ready yet, is she ready yet,’ said Leclair. “And by the end of the year, she said she was ready for me, so I tried her and showed her, and I just couldn’t have gotten her there without Gloria.”

The mare had already secured wins this year that put her lifetime earnings a little over $5,000. The clean sweep of the three levels in the Open Novice Horse will increase that by $2,300.

“This mare has won over 10 bronze trophies this year so far already,” said Leclair. “She’s just a really gritty little mare, very pretty, really physical, and she was really good to show.”

Limited Non Pro [1] Champions Anita Horn & Cowboys Ride Away

Anita Horn's 2019 gelding may be named Cowboys Ride Away, but in the Limited Non Pro [1] at the NRBC, Horn was the cowgirl who rode away as a champion.

A score of 144.5 secured the win for the pair, something Horn is particularly proud of, as she has only owned the gelding for about a month.

"This is only my second time in the pen on this horse," explained Horn. "I've only had him for just short of a month, but I'm really loving him."

Cowboys Ride Away, bred by Dr. James Morgan, is by Smart And Shiney out of Awhiz Called Wanda. The gelding has a lifetime earnings of just over $17,000.

Horn thanked Trevor Dare for getting them prepared and her husband for holding down the fort at home so that she could travel to the NRBC.

Non Pro Prime Time, Masters, & Legends Champions Morris Kulmer & NVR What A Lucky Joe

Morris Kulmer won the Non Pro PrimeTime, Masters, and the new Legends division for riders seventy years or older.

Of the Legends class, Kulmer joked, "I hope pretty soon—because I'll be eighty next year—that they make one called the Super Legends. But it's great to have [the Legends division] this year. It's great to win and keep the old folks in the game. I really appreciate that."

Kulmer rode NVR What A Lucky Joe, by Lil Joe Cash out of What a Lucky Hit, to a score of 146. 'Joey' is a ten-year-old gelding bred by Gary Vickrey.

Having won the Masters and Legends Non Pro [1], Kulmer is in the running to be one of the riders eligible to ride in the Blo Gun/Spooks Grand Slam Masters and/or Fappani PH/Spooks N Jewels Legends Shootout. Advancement is based on the composite score of both slates; the top five composite riders get to run in the Ford Arena where the Derby classes are held.

"That's good because I came here to have fun," Kulmer said of the Shootouts.

Rookie L2 & Prime Time Rookie Champions Susannah Rose & Shining On Ruf

Susannah Rose won the Rookie L2 and PrimeTime [1] with a score of 73 aboard a horse that's no stranger to the NRBC. Shining On Ruf was the Non Pro Classic Champion in 2022 with Taylor Zimmerman in the saddle.

Shining On Ruf, aka 'Calvin,' is a son of Not Ruf At All out of Boom Shine Sally and was bred by Kristen Avila. Calvin has already racked up lifetime earnings over $92,000.

"Every time I ride him, I just want to ride him more," Rose said. "He's super fun, he's very talented, and he has a personality larger than life."

Having won the first slate in the Rookie L2, Rose could end up in the Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout if she finishes with one of the top five composite scores after the second slate. Rose said getting into the Shootout was "absolutely" a goal of hers.

"I would love to be a part of that," she said.

She thanked her trainers, Dave Moore and Nikki Tyndell, as well as John and Nancy Tague of Toyon Ranch, who paid for this year's Rookie fees for all riders as part of their NRBC sponsorship.

"I thank them, because it's always nice to go to a horse show and not have to pay," Rose commented with a big smile.

Rookie Level 1 Champions Ignacio Diano & MMB Pale Princess

A true rookie to the sport of reining, with less than eight months of experience under his belt, Ignacio Diano won the Rookie Level 1 [1] at the NRBC with a score of 72 aboard MMB Pale Princess.

The 2019 mare, bred by Margarita Arietti, is by Pale Face Dunnit and out of Paparazzi Princess.

Diano describes the mare as, "the best, there's nothing else I could ask for." He thanked his family, Alpha Quarter Horses, who owns the mare, and all of the people who work for them for helping him get to this point, and for encouraging him to do his best.

It will take another solid run in the second slate of rookie classes to advance to the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout, and the competition is always tough at the NRBC. Diano is nervous, but is confident that all anyone expects is his best, and he's hopeful his mare can lay down the "perfect" run that she did in the first slate.

"That's good because I came here to have fun," Kulmer said of the Shootouts.

Classic Connection

Charles Wiederholt

Non Pro Classic finalist Charles Wiederholt first competed in the National Reining Breeders Classic in 1999.

In the 25 years since then, he's made it to the finals more times than he can remember, but before he ever dreamed of making any finals on a reining horse, he made a trip to the National Finals Rodeo as a bull rider.

"Well I won the circuit finals that year; it was between me and my brother," explained Wiederholt. "I ended up at the National Finals Rodeo from that, then decided to hang my bull rope up."

Wiederholt ended his bull riding career at 31, after the NFR in December, and by spring of the next year, was already taking reining lessons with NRHA Million Dollar Rider and Owner and Hall of Fame member, Tim McQuay.

"Tim was about 75 miles from me, so I would go down every once in a while to ride," said Wiederholt. "He would give me stuff to work on and I'd go home and do that, and we did that, it just went from there."

Wiederholt spent his career running the family business—a restaurant. Outside of that, he's remained his own groom, colt starter, and stall cleaner.

"I've done it all myself, because that's kind of what I enjoyed the most," said Wiederholt. "I like figuring out a horse's brain, and figuring out what makes them work."

Heading into the finals at the NRBC, Wiederholt led the Masters Non Pro. In the finals, he scored an impressive 217.5 which secured him the reserve spot.
