Casey Deary and Pale Face Vintage Lead NRBC Open Prelims After First Section

After a quiet Easter Sunday, competition resumed in full force at the 2025 National Reining Breeders Classic inside the Ford Arena at Tulsa's Expo Square.

The first section of the Open Preliminary round kicked off Monday, and at the top of the leaderboard is NRBC veteran and three-time champion Casey Deary. Deary, who has nearly $5 million in lifetime earnings, won the last two NRBC titles – and the Reserve Championship in 2022 – aboard Down Right Amazing. Since Down Right Amazing has aged out of the Classic, Deary has a new string of contenders, including Pale Face Vintage, who he rode to a 223.5 to take the early lead of the round.

Preliminary competition continues through Wednesday and will determine the finalists for Saturday's clean-slate Open Finals, as well as champions in the Novice Horse Open and the APHA Chrome Cash Incentive. Finalists will find out their draw positions during the Markel Insurance Open Draw Party on Thursday, April 24.

This year, the top 30 in Levels 4, 3, and 2, the top 27 in Level 1, and the top 13 in Open Prime Time will advance to the Finals on Saturday, April 26.

Ancillary Champions Crowned

High Point Green Reiner Level 1- April Gentry & Alpha Onespecialnite

At this midway mark of the NRBC, not only are class winners being awarded, but also High Point titles.

For Green Reiner Level 1, April Gentry & Alpha Onespecialnite were recognized as the High Point champions in thanks to their Slate 2 score of a 70.5.

"I think I learned a lot today. He did some things that weren't quite in the game plan, but every time we're out there, we're learning something new. He walked in the pen, and he gave me his turns like I asked for, and then I just had to manage his energy level today. But we're learning every time we're out there, and it's super fun to just take in new experiences, to get to do something that I haven't done before," Gentry said.

On Saturday, Gentry and the 8-year-old gelding by Gunners Special Nite and out of One Last Corona won Slate 1 of the Green Reiner Level 1 & 2. The gelding is owned by Gentry and bred by Tom McCutcheon. Their performances in the Green Reiner this week have lent a hand in qualifying them for the Rios Family of Brands Shootout on Thursday.

When asked about the Shootout, Gentry said, "I'm super excited... We got to run big, fast 'gallopy' circles, and so I'm looking forward to getting out there and hopefully having the right horse that day and managing what we've got and seeing what we can do."

BLOOD DRIVE

Tuesday April 22, 2025
10 am Outside of the Built Ford Tough Arena

Green Reiner Level 1 Champion – Audrina Johnson & Miss Sugar Dreams

Green Reiner Slate 2 is now in the books, and Audrina Johnson and Miss Sugar Dreams are taking the gold for Level 1 with a score of 72.

Miss Sugar Dreams is by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Miss Sugar Gunnit. The 4-year-old mare is bred by Mary Jansma and owned by Couture Reiners.

While Johnson hits the reiner pen when she's not in school, she's a student by trade and had to get back following her win; therefore she wasn't able to be grabbed for an interview, but we congratulate her on her success here at this year's 2025 NRBC.

Green Reiner & High Point Level 2 Champion - Becky Parrish & Gunning For Paris

Becky Parrish and Gunning For Paris' score of a 71 in Slate 2 of the Green Reiner Level 2 secured her the championship along with the win in the High Point.

Gunning For Paris is a 4-year-old mare by Snipers Smoking Gun and out of Lady Whiz Pistol. The mare is personally owned by Parrish.

"She's special. She's my first true reiner that I've ever had... That I've been able to raise and go on with," Parrish said.

The pair also qualified for the Rios Family of Brands Shootout – which will be coincidentally held on the mare's official birthday this week. Parrish said the mare will be treated to cookies, but that would be happening even if it wasn't her birthday.

With tears in her eyes, Parrish said, "The emotions are definitely high... I can't say enough thanks to Josh Murphy and his team for getting her (Gunning For Paris) ready for me and the incredible foundation they've put on her."

Limited Non Pro High Point Champion – Grace Tachikawa & Maggie Magnum

The Super Duty Arena also began awarding its first High Point winners at the 2025 NRBC, and Grace Tachikawa & Maggie Magnum are walking with the title in the Limited Non Pro.

Maggie Magnum is a 9-year-old mare bred by Casey Hinton and owned by SRQ Performance Horses. She is by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Skeets Red Dunit.

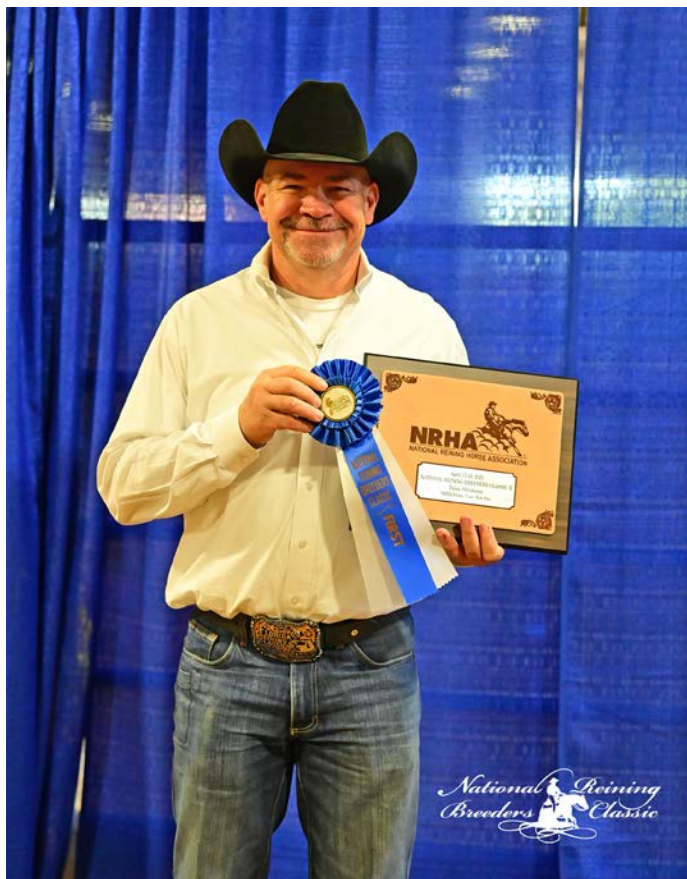

The pair won the Limited Non Pro Championship on Sunday, as well as the AQHA Ametur Reining on Friday.

"She's been super consistent all week long. We've already achieved more this week than I had the hopes to coming into this show. We were just trying to get some miles and confidence in the show pen. So today I was like, 'okay, there's a chance we can win this buckle, so we'll just stay out of her way again, and see where we got,'" Tachikawa said.

Since Tachikawa leases Maggie Magnum, she thanks Tyler Williams for giving her the opportunity to treat the mare like her own. She also thanks the Roush Reining crew for the support.

While Tachikawa planned to enter the Novice Horse on Wednesday, she said the mare earned herself a break with the now three titles won so far at the 2025 NRBC.

Prime Time Non Pro Champion – Paul Queen & Outta Dough

Paul Queen and Outta Dough are “outta dough” no longer, as the pair won Slate 2 of the Prime Time Non Pro Championship.

Outta Dough is no rookie in the reining arena, as the 20-year-old stallion has amassed close to $100,000 in career earnings. By Gallo Del Cielo and out of Dough Olena, Outta Dough is bred by Main River Quarter Horses and owned by Queen’s mother, Dorothy Queen.

“He’s been in our family a long time... I just keep bringing him because he likes to come, and he’s still just as tough as he ever was. He’s getting a little age on him now, but he’s just so much fun to ride, and I enjoy being with him. We’ve just been a team for quite a while now,” Queen said.

Queen and Outta Dough scored a 73 to top the Prime Time Non Pro field, and Queen had quite a few people he’d like to thank for it.

“Jared Leclair has been amazing to work with, and it goes back to Bob Curtis. Bob Curtis taught me to ride along with Jack Kyle – several other people along the way, but those are the ones that come to mind that have really turned my life and made m what I am today in the horse world.”

Masters Non Pro Champion – Donna Duvall & Xtra Beetle Juice

Donna Duvall and Xtra Beetle Juice are the ones to claim victory in Slate 2 of the Masters Non Pro.

With a score of 72.5, Duvall and the personally owned 8-year-old gelding also earned a spot in the Rios Family of Brands Shootout on Thursday. Xtra Beetle Juice is by Tinker With Guns and out of Bella Juice and bred by Silver Spurs Equine.

“He’s just been such an awesome little horse for me – (we) had a great year last year, started this one off good... He just showed up and did his thing,” Duvall said.

Duvall thanks the rest of her team members who also show up for her and “do their thing.”

“My husband, Bruce, who supports this endeavor 100%, all the time, and he stays home and takes care of all the rest of our animals. And then Scott and Kathy McCutcheon and Lindsey McCutcheon, they keep me ready, my horse ready to go to the showpen – I couldn’t do it without them and my whole barn family that comes out and cheers for me everytime.”

When asked about this year’s NRBC experience, Duvall said, “I’ve had a great NRBC. I actually showed another horse in the Classic. (I) didn’t make the finals, but it was a lot of fun.”

While Duvall may not have made a Finals on every horse she brought this year, the Masters Non Pro win and Blo Gun/Spooks Gran Slam Shootout qualification on Xtra Beetle Juice certainly accounts for a successful NRBC.

Prime Time Non Pro & Masters Non Pro High Point Champion – Paula Lyon & Drinkin Moonshine

So far in the bunch of High Point champions, Paula Lyon and Drinkin Moonshine are the only ones to pull off a double. The pair's 72 scored ride earned them both the Prime Time Non Pro and Masters Non Pro High Point championship and an advancement to the Blo Gun/Spooks Grand Slam Shootout.

The 9-year-old gelding is by Shine Chic Shine and out of Wimpy Little Girl. While bred by Peter Morgan, Lyon personally owns Drinkin Moonshine.

"I've had him for four years. Dan and Wendy Huss found him for me. (I'm) new to reining, and the Husses and (Drinkin Moonshine) have brought me a long way, and I am very proud," Lyon said.

While Lyon has many people to thank for her current success, she primarily thanks her husband, daughters, and grandchildren for the support and the Husses for helping her get into the reining industry.

Prior to reining, Lyon was involved in the all-around events as a youth and young adult, but had to step back to raise a family. Once climbing back into the saddle, she found herself on a reiner.

With now two 2025 NRBC buckles to speak for her success, hoping on a reiner seemed to be a great choice.

Legends Non Pro and High Point Champion

Linda Sawyer & Spooksgottaprettyboy

Linda Sawyer and Spooksgottaprettyboy weren't letting the Legends Non Pro pass them by without scooping up both the win and High Point championship for the class.

Spooksgottaprettyboy is by Spooks Gotta Gun and out of Prettywhizprettydoes. The 15-year-old gelding is bred by Haverty Ranch and owned by Sawyer.

"He's 15 years old, so he's kind of an old trooper, but just a good boy. Yesterday we had some bobbles, but today I was really happy. I fixed a lot of things that went wrong yesterday and had a really, really good run," Sawyer said.

A smooth and solid 71.5 score was just the thing Sawyer and Spooksgottaprettyboy were looking for.

"It was just right there – great in his circles, great in his rundowns. We had a stumble at the end of our last stop, though, that kind of hurt us a little bit – but everything else was really good. I was happy with him and me."

With the High Point and class win, the duo also will be advancing to the Fappani/ Spooks N Jewels Shootout and the Blo Gun/Spooks Grand Slam Shootout achievements Sawyer thanks Debbie Brown with McCutcheon Reining for playing a part in.

THE SHOOTOUTS WILL TAKE PLACE THURSDAY IN THE FORD ARENA

Congratulations to Catherine MacGlashan and Brian Carsey!

Both Catherine and Brian are random draw winners from the Rookie and Green Class that are taking home an awesome prize package from Teton Ridge — including two tickets to The American Performance Horseman and some fantastic TAPH merch!

Huge thanks to Teton Ridge for supporting our riders!

Limited Non Pro Champion – Bella Beck & Reining Royalty

Youth contender Bella Beck and her horse, Reining Royalty, claimed the Limited Non Pro Championship with a score of 73.5.

While Reining Royalty has no trouble sliding his way to the top of the leaderboard, the 5-year-old gelding is completely blind in his right eye and has been since he was a colt. Yet, it doesn't slow him down in the slightest.

"I forget about it most of the time until people are like, 'Oh, what happened?' and I'm like, 'Oh yeah – his eye.' I forget about it. He's completely fine with everything, and he's just the sweetest boy," Beck said.

Bred by Michell Kimball and owned by Bella Beck, Reining Royalty is by Spooks Gotta Whiz and out of Bella Della.

"He's always so excited to show, and the closer we get to packing up and showing, the more excited he gets," Beck said.

Beck credits a small portion of her win to the "lucky blue halter" Reining Royalty wears.

"I won this halter two years ago here with my 13 and under horse, Buddy, and we were the 13 and Under High Point (winners), and we've been bringing it along ever since. And then last year, I was the 14 to 18 Classic Challenge Champion. We put the same halter on now... I guess it's just the halter that lives on."

Beck thanks her parents, Shane Brown (her trainer), CS Ranch for putting a great foundation on her horse, and the NRBC show staff and sponsors – and of course, the horse that wears the "lucky blue halter."

SHOOTOUT QUALIFIERS ANNOUNCED AT THE NRBC

With the conclusion of Monday's ancillary classes at the National Reining Breeders Classic, the field is nearly set for Thursday's clean-slate Shootouts in the Ford Arena. The Yellowstone Rookie Shootout qualifiers will be finalized following the second slate of Rookie classes, which will take place Tuesday.

Due to the growing popularity of the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout, the NRBC has expanded the Shootout lineup to include the Green Reiner, Masters Non Pro, and Legends Non Pro divisions. These additions were made possible thanks to generous sponsorships from longtime NRBC supporters.

The Green Reiner Shootout is sponsored by the Rios of Mercedes Family of Brands. Mike and Joanne Garnett, owners of Blo Gun, and Kim and Martin Muehlstaetter, owners of Spooks Grand Slam, have stepped up to sponsor the Masters Non Pro Shootout. Andrea and Tish Fappani, along with their stallion Spooks N Jewels, are sponsoring the Legends Non Pro Shootout.

Riders with the top five composite scores from both slates of competition have earned a place in their respective Shootouts. The qualifiers are as follows:

Green Reiner Shootout (Rios of Mercedes Family of Brands)

- Becky Parrish & Gunning For Paris
- April Gentry & Alpha Onespecialnite
- Kelley Gravenslund & Gunna Dream Big
- Brian Carsey & Shine Colt Shine
- Lyndsey Norris & Dirty Diamonds

Masters Non Pro Shootout (Blo Gun / Spooks Grand Slam)

- Paula Lyon & Drinkin Moonshine
- Donna Duvall & Xtra Beetle Juice
- Linda Sawyer & Spooksgotaprettyboy
- Gayle Samuelson & Westcoast Paleface
- Bettina Bellini & Slick Tricks

Legends Non Pro Shootout (Fappani / Spooks N Jewels)

- Linda Sawyer & Spooksgotaprettyboy
- Gayle Samuelson & Westcoast Paleface
- Bettina Bellini & Slick Tricks
- Paul Simonson & Smart And Tuckered
- Cheryl Lauder & Little White Diamond

The Shootouts will take place Thursday in the Ford Arena, showcasing a series of exciting head-to-head performances from some of the best combinations in each division.

Congratulations to Anna Schwartz for qualifying for the 2025 World Reining Championship in Prime Time Non Pro!
