Trevor Dare & Gangsta Sixtysix Lead National Reining Breeders Classic Open Preliminaries

After an easy Sunday, competition in the Ford Arena at the Built Ford Tough Livestock Complex at Expo Square picked right back up. The first section of the Open preliminaries of the 2024 NRBC kicked off Monday. With numerous high scores marked right off the bat, it's apparent that this year's Million Dollar Show might be one for the history books.

This year, the NRBC Board of Directors elected to extend the show dates. It's a good thing, as the 2024 Open Classic boasts the largest number of entries ever, at 250.

The preliminary round will run three days and will not only decide the finalists, but also who will win the Novice Horse Open division and the American Paint Horse Association Chrome Cash Incentive.

This year, the top 30 from the Open Level 4, Level 3, and Level 2 will earn a spot in the clean slate finals on Saturday, April 27, as will the top 27 in the Level 1 and top 19 in the Open Prime Time.

The current leaders in each level are:

National Reining Breeders Classic

Ancillary Champions Crowned

Ltd. Non Pro, Prime Time Non Pro, Masters Non Pro [2] Champion Bettina Bellini & Slick Tricks

Bettina Bellini took home three championships in the Limited, Prime Time, and Masters Non Pro [2], as well as a High Point buckle in the Limited Non Pro. She rode Slick Tricks, a five-year-old son of Tricked Out Spook out of Too Spooked To Drive, bred by Cayce Bennett. They scored a 72.5—the kind of ride Bellini has been hoping to have on this horse since she got him.

“He never has a bad thought, so anything that goes wrong out there is my fault,” said Bellini.

She rides with Kole Price and expressed appreciation for the advice he gave her before she entered the pen.

“Kole Price just helps me so much. The whole barn just takes such good care of my horses,” she noted. “Kole is really fun to ride with. He doesn’t make you feel stupid, and he makes everyone feel important.”

Bellini has known Kole’s wife, Kelsey, since long before she was a decorated NRHA Non Pro and said that was a factor in her decision to join the Price’s barn.

“She’s like the most beautiful rider ever, ever,” Bellini emphasized. “So that’s what drew me to them.”

She thanked the entire barn crew, as well as Kaci O’Rourke and Jack Daniels, for selling Slick Tricks to her.

She’ll also be running in the Ford Arena as part of the Blo Gun/Spooks Grand Slam Masters Shootout.

“I love to ride in that arena,” said Bellini, brimming with excitement. “I’m speechless—and people will know that I really mean that because I’m not speechless very often.”

Legends Non Pro [2] Co-Champions - Linda Sawyer & Spooksgottaprettyboy

Prime Time High Point Champion, Legends Non Pro [2] Co-Champion - Morris Kulmer

Linda Sawyer and Morris Kulmer agreed to be co-champions in the Legends Non Pro [2] after they both scored a 70.5 in their respective runs.

Kulmer joked that the decision to share the title was because “it’s the lady’s choice.” Sawyer added that it was to avoid putting another run on their horses, to which Kulmer agreed.

Sawyer’s mount in both Legends Non Pro slates was fourteen-year-old Spooksgottaprettyboy by Spooks Gotta Gun out of Prettywhizprettydoes, bred by Haverty Ranch. Sawyer has owned this gelding for seven years and spent the first five of those years just pasture riding, then hit the show pen in the last two years.

As to her reason for returning to reining, Sawyer said, “I was just bored. It was time. I love the horse industry and I was missing it.”

Kulmer rode NVR What A Lucky Joe to his co-championship win with Sawyer, as well as to the Prime Time High Point Championship. ‘Joey’ is a ten-year-old gelding by Lil Joe Cash out of What A Lucky Hit and bred by Gary Vickrey. He’s already accumulated $173,855 in lifetime earnings. Kulmer and Joey were also the slate one champions.

The two co-champions have a friendly rivalry in the show pen, with Kulmer commenting that he and Sawyer have been “chasing each other around the pen” for a long time.

They’ll have another chance to face off against each other, this time in the big Ford Arena during the upcoming Fappani Performance Horses/Spooks N Jewels Legends Shootout and the Blo Gun/Spooks Grand Slam Masters Shootout.

“I thank the great sponsors for putting this Shootout together,” Kulmer stated. “It’s great. Linda and I both won a wagon, so we like all those awards.”

Sawyer thanked Debbie Brown and the McCutcheons, as well as her family and the show sponsors and management.

Green Reiner L1 & L2 [2] Co-Champion & High Point

Kristen Syburg & Cinco De Magnum

Kristen Syburg claimed a co-championship in the Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 [2] with a score of 143.5, also securing her spot in The Rios of Mercedes Family of Brands Green Reiner Shootout.

Syburg piloted Cinco De Magnum, a 2018 gelding she has had for less than six months. The gelding is by Magnum Chic Drem and out of Calatrava. He was bred by Gail Klapper.

He's quirky, fun and honest," said Syburg of the gelding. "He's everything a girl could want."

Despite the short time the pair have been riding together, things have steadily become smoother and more put together in the pen since Syburg began riding with Linde Von Koeding, who she thanked profusely.

Syburg will show the gelding again in the shootout, to which she said, "I'm super excited for the opportunity in the shootout, I just hope I can go in the pen and do it again like this."

Green Reiner L1 & L2 [2] Co-Champion

Susan Fiely & Cash Made Easy

It may be early in the year, but Susan Fiely is already chasing a year-end championship. After a co-championship in the Green Reiner Level 1 & 2 [2], she is well on her way.

It was that goal that led her to scratch the first slate of the Green Reiner, in an effort to save her horsepower for the classes that counted towards the award.

Fiely rode Cash Made Easy, a 2016 gelding bred by Darling 888 Ranch. 'Cash' is by Lil Joe Cash and out of Easy Lil Lady.

"If you look at the video of my run, you'll see he flaps his lip all the time. That's just kind of what he does, he's a funny guy," laughed Fiely. "But he's super sweet. He's super honest, a really big stopper who's just got a lot of heart. And I'm just thrilled with him."

The pair have only been in the pen together three times, and she thanked Dare Performance Horses, specifically Angela Pratt, for helping her pull it all together in such a short time.
