Ancillary Champions Crowned

Rookie Level 1 and Prime Time Rookie High Point Jenny Booth & Baileys Not Painted

Jenny Booth went home with not one, but two buckles in the Rookie ancillary class—and she was ecstatic about it. Her score of 144.5 in the second slate cinched her status as the High Point Champion in both the Rookie L1 and Rookie Prime Time.

She rode Baileys Not Painted, an eleven-year-old gelding by Gunners Special Nite out of Darlins Not Painted, bred by Turnabout Farm. He's known as 'Boris' around the barn. Booth's goal going into the event was simple: "Have a good time together."

She achieved that, as well as the two High Point wins, in part because of her trainer Jake Ballard's pre-show advice. "He said, 'You stay clean and let the horse pick up the extra points for you,'" she recalled. "It worked beautifully."

Not only did Booth qualify for the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout with Darlins Not Painted, she also qualified for the Rios Family of Brands Green Reiner Shootout on a different horse.

"That was pretty much icing on the cake. With little frosted flowers on top," she added. "I've decided it's going to be a double decker cake."

Now that she has two buckles, she'll let her husband choose which one he wants to wear first.

"He takes me all over the country and is so supportive," Booth said. "He's really upset because he had to be out of town today. He'll be back tomorrow and he can pick one."

She said she'd never been to a horse show where her entry fees were paid for, like NRBC, where John and Nancy Tague sponsored all entry fees for Rookie riders. "I'm so excited," she said, laughing. "It's great. I want to come back."

Rookie Level 2 High Point Champions Emily Lloyd & This Gunners Dreamin

Emily Lloyd and nine-year-old This Gunners Dreamin won the Rookie Level 2 High Point championship. This Gunners Dreamin is a son of Gunners Special Nite out of This Chicsdundreamin, bred by Rhodes River Ranch.

Lloyd said she and her mount found their “groove” in the second run, allowing them to end up third in the slate. She expressed gratitude for her trainer, Billy Williams, who helped her and her horse put everything together.

“My horse is great. He kind of knows what he’s doing,” she explained. “It’s more me that needs help, but my trainer is great working with the two of us together, and I’ve just had a really great time and experience with them both.”

She only recently found out that there would be a Yellowstone Rookie Shootout for the top five riders in the composite rankings of both slates, but was “excited” that she made the cut to run in the Ford Arena during the Shootout.

“It’s incredible. It’s awesome,” Lloyd said to John and Nancy Tague of Toyon Ranch who paid entry fees for all Rookies this year.

Rookie Level 1, 2, and Prime Time Rookie Kristen Syburg & Magnums Peppy

After tasting success with a different horse earlier in the week, Kristen Syburg returned to the pen, just to win it all again. This time she claimed the second slate win for Rookie Levels 1 & 2, as well as the Prime Time Rookie.

“This horse and I actually won the AQHA Honor Roll and the Select Ranch Riding last year,” said Syburg. “We kind of picked him to be my back up horse, but my trainer, Linde Von Koeding, identified his talents, and has been working on us.”

The horse in question is Magnums Peppy, known as ‘Slider,’ a 2013 gelding by Magnum Chic Dream out of Mattie Peppy. The gelding was bred by Jeanne Jackson.

Syburg’s runs have qualified her for The Run For A Million as well as the Yellowstone Rookie Shootout on Thursday night. She thanked her trainer, as well as Toyon Ranch for sponsoring the entries to the class, allowing her to show as much as she has.

Classic Connection

Harper Kiseljack

Go big or go home is the name of the game for National Reining Breeders Classic first-timer Harper Kiseljack.

At only 15 years old, Harper Kiseljack was one of the youngest competitors to enter the pen in the Non Pro Classic at the NRBC. In addition to that run, she's also vying for a spot at the top in multiple other ancillary classes, including The Run For A Million qualifier.

"I decided to come to the NRBC just to start the derby years and just kind of get out there and try," explained Kiseljack. "I used to do cow horse stuff, so reining is definitely new to me."

Kiseljack's horses are Cheeto and Ticket, her best boys, and she's thankful to have this experience with them. Cheeto came to reining with Kiseljack, after a successful career in the cow horse sports, and Ticket is a new addition, having only been with the team for less than a month.

"I think the NRBC is super cool," said Kiseljack. "It's a really good experience. Everyone has been super nice so that makes it just be so much more fun to be here."

Tenda Drag Awards

Thanks to Tenda Horse Products, riders may get to go home with some great prizes even if they don't take home the first place ribbon. Contestants who mark the highest score in their set are awarded the Tenda Drag Award, a bucket full of Tenda products to pamper your horse with after a great run.

Ofek Chemel was the lucky winner of one of these buckets and said with a laugh, "It's nice to be a champion somewhere. I don't like to lose. But I won something, so I didn't lose today. It's a good day because I won a Drag Award."

The moral of this story is: keep an eye on the scores coming out of your set! If you end up with the highest score between drags, head to the back gate to claim your Tenda Drag Award.

Shapleys Best Turned Out Awards

It's not too late to throw your name in the ring for the Shapley's Best Turned Out awards!

The NRBC has been partnering with Shapley's Equine Products for the past several years to recognize exceptional grooms with the Shapley's Best Turned Out awards. This is a special award to shine a spotlight on our hard-working grooms who do so much work behind the scenes.

This year's lucky winner will receive a silver engraved plate and a bucket of Shapley's Superior Equine Grooming products. Both will be presented to the groom of the best-turned-out horse.

To enter, grooms need only to fill out a simple free entry form at the show office before Friday, April 26. A panel of judges, including staff at all arenas, will have the job of choosing the champion and subsequent placings. Winners will be recognized on Friday, April 26 before the Open Classic Challenge.
