The Field is Set for the National Reining Breeders Classic Open Finals

After three sections of preliminaries and no shortage of intense competition, great runs, and high scores, the Open Finalists for the 2024 National Reining Breeders Classic have been decided.

Trevor Dare and Gangsta Sixty Six were leading the pack for the first two sections, but on the third day, their impressive score of 225.5 was surpassed, initially by Jason Vanlandingham and Best Shine with a 226. Later in the draw, Fernando Salgado and Spook Lil Whiz scored a matching 226 to end up tied for the top score in the prelims.

After the last team, Peter DeFreitas and Dust Off Ya Gunns, made their run in the preliminaries, the bubble for advancement into the Level 4 finals landed at a 221.5. The Open Finals on Saturday are certain to be electric, with even higher scores and huge runs.

In addition to qualifying for the Open Finals, champions were decided in the APHA Chrome Cash Open and the Novice Horse Open.

The qualifying Open riders will get a two day break before the finals begin on Saturday, April 27. This afternoon, the high scorers in each division will hold a press conference at 3 p.m. in the Ford Arena before the Open Draw Party begins in the sponsor area. Both events are open for all to attend. Join us in

Ancillary Champions

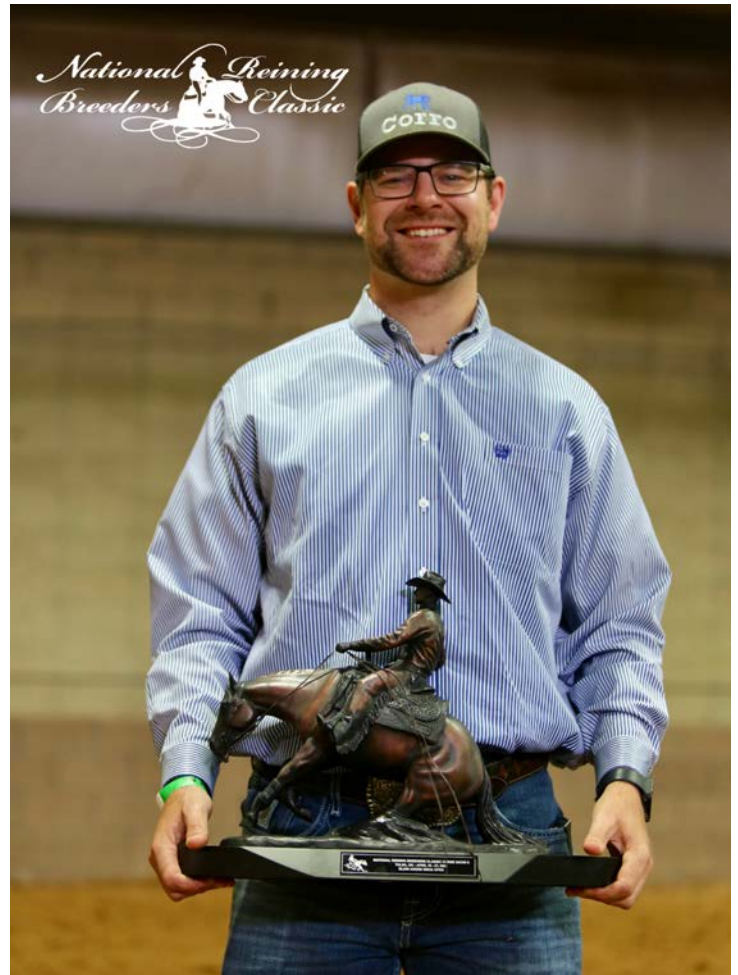

Open & Intermediate [1] Champion Trent Harvey & KR Trashya Lena

Trent Harvey and KR Trashya Lena, known as ‘Elton,’ slid into the ancillary Open [2] and Intermediate Open [1] championship with a score of 73.5, but winning wasn’t necessarily Harvey’s goal when entering the slate.

“I wanted to kind of see what I had preparing for the Derby,” said Harvey. “From the minute I walked in the gates, he was all business, and that’s what I was looking for. He was everything that I was hoping for mentally—and I only used probably fifty to sixty percent of him.”

Elton is a six-year-old stallion by Gunnatrashya out of Smart Shiny Lena, bred by Butch Coggins. Harvey thanked Elton’s owners, Cathy and Nicole Driscoll, for, “Giving him the opportunity to show such a cool horse.” He also thanked his wife and family for keeping everything running smoothly at home while he is gone, as well as his assistant trainers, Katie and Daniel, and his groom, Claudio.

“They make sure that my horses are always taken care of to the best of their abilities,” said Harvey. “I can always trust leaving Daniel at home, keeping my two-year-olds and three-year-olds going whenever I’m away. Without all those guys, I couldn’t do what I’m doing.”

Ltd. Open [1] Champion Desiree Kelts & Vintage Chic N Whiz

Desiree Kelts won the Limited Open [1] title on Tolbert Foster's Vintage Chic N Whiz, a four-year-old mare by A Sparkling Vintage out of This Chic N Whiz, called 'Gloria.'

"It kind of suits her," Kelts said of the mare's barn name. "She's a little goofy, but I love her. She's really picky with her treats. She'll eat a horse cookie, but if I try to give her a carrot or an apple, she will not even attempt to taste it."

With a score of 72 for her run, Kelts' said her favorite part was the circles, commenting, "She let me just put my hand down on her neck and look where I was going. She just stayed right underneath me the whole time."

She thanked everyone who works with her at the McCutcheon barn as well as their clients.

Gloria is entered in the first-ever NRBC Claiming Reining, which will take place this evening in the Ford Arena after the Shootout classes. Prospective claimers interested in the mare must fill out a claiming form at the Horse Show Office by noon today.

Rookie Professional [1] Champion Gabriel Fornetti & Pretty Voodoo Gun

Gabriel Fornetti claimed the championship of the Rookie Professional [1] aboard Pretty Voodoo Gun with a score of 71.5.

Pretty Voodoo Gun is a 2017 mare owned by Janice Laney. Bred by Ubere Agropecuaria Eireli, the mare is by Shiners Voodoo Dr and out of Prettywhizprettygun.

"She's a good mare," said Fornetti. "She has a lot of potential."

Fornetti thanked Laney for letting him ride the horse, as well as Mirko Midili and Leo Kellermann for teaching him the ropes.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 & 3 High Point Lindsey McCutcheon & Dreamy Lil Gun

Lindsey McCutcheon and Dreamy Lil Gun claimed the title of the Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 1 & 3 High Point at the NRBC.

Dreamy Lil Gun is a 2019 mare, bred by Kathleen Roach, by Magnum Chic Dream out of Freckles Nu Lil Gun. Lindsey's parents, Scott and Kathy McCutcheon, own the mare.

"Today was different because I noticed everyone was going a little harder," explained McCutcheon. "It was a little more competitive, and I thought, 'Okay, we are just gonna have to go a little harder.'"

While the runs that landed McCutcheon the High Point title are her last for the NRBC, she'll be spending the rest of the show as a groom- cleaning stalls and cheering for the youth she supports.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 High Point Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 [2] Co-Champion Tiffany Bauer & CC Pearl Jam

Rounding off a week of championships, Tiffany Bauer claimed the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 [2] Co-Championship, as well as the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 High Point at the NRBC.

"I've had her since her two-year-old year, and we've always had some sort of penalties in the arena," explained Bauer. "This is the first show where we have come together and had a clean run."

The 2019, bred by Brent Loseke, is by Colonels Shining Gun out of Jamrock Joe.

Of the mare, Bauer said, "She's just a real sweet horse, a total sweetheart, and I love her so much."

Bauer thanked her trainer, Stefano Calcagnini, and her family.

"It takes a village," said Bauer. "I've got a pretty great one, and I'm very thankful for that."

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 3 [2] Co-Champions Olivia Rhodes & Chics Be Dreamin

Olivia Rhodes and Chics Be Dreamin tied for the win of the Novice Horse Non Pro L3 [2] Co-Championship with a 142.5. Rhodes and Chics Be Dreamin, aka 'Louie,' also took home the Skyline Silver High Point Buckle in the same division.

Louie is extra special, as Rhodes rode his dam, Lil Ms Gee Whiz, to her first Green Reiner High Point buckle.

"He has a lot of personality," commented Rhodes on the homebred four-year-old gelding by Chic Dreamin. .

Her trainer, Yonathan Baruch, chimed in, "He eats all my reins."

Rhodes agreed with a laugh. "He needs a pacifier in his mouth at all times."

She thanked Yonathan for all his help, saying "I definitely wouldn't have been able to show him as a three-year-old or as a four-year-old without his help, so I'm super thankful for them and their team."

Unfortunately Olivia had to leave before the awards ceremony, so we were unable to get her photo to share.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 & 2 [2] Champion Breanna Lappe & Pretty Electric

Breanna Lappe claimed the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 & 2 [2] championship in what was only her second trip in the show pen with Pretty Electric. She's a 2019 mare by Mr Electric Spark out of ARC Wanna Martini, bred by Foothills Farms, called 'Princess.'

Lappe and Princess didn't make it into the finals in the Non Pro Classic, so she entered the Novice Horse Non Pro to get to know her mount a little better.

"She was very good, and I just kind of stayed out of her way," Lappe recalled. "She did her job. I pushed her on her turns a little bit, and she responded very well."

She scored a 144 with Princess and thanked her trainer, Brent Naylor, and his fiancée, Robin Filbry, as well as her family for all their support of her.
