Trevor Dare & Spat Toy Boy Gun Win Open Classic Challenge Championship

Trevor Dare came to the NRBC meaning business—repeatedly laying down high scores in the pen and setting the standard on the leaderboard.

With a score of 223.5, Dare and Spat Toy Boy Gun claimed the championship of the Level 4 Open Classic Challenge.

“He has got so much style,” said Dare. “It’s really natural for him. Whether he is being good or bad, if you’re standing at the back gate watching him, he always looks awesome.”

Spat Toy Boy Gun, affectionately called ‘Gino,’ is owned by Dana Wetherell.

Of the stallion, she said, “He’s a once in a lifetime horse, and I don’t know what I did to deserve him.”

Gino, by Spat Split And White out of Snowy River Gunner, was bred by Chiara Pelosi.

“I got in his way everywhere I could yesterday and got a 204,” said Wetherell. “For me to have shown him like that and him to turn around and do this, it’s a testament to his mind. He wasn’t what I was looking for, but God knew what I needed more than I did.”

Dare thanked Dana and Wes Wetherell for letting him ride the stallion, his team for keeping things running smoothly, and his wife, Laura, for supporting and managing his business.

Andrea Fappani & Gunna Be First $25K Open Champion

Gunna Be First, a 2018 stallion, lived up to his name, when he claimed the championship of the $25K Open while piloted by Andrea Fappani at the NRBC.

In the Non Pro Classic, Gunna Be First and Jesse Boyd, the stallion's owner, claimed the championship in the Level 2.

This kind of set-up is unusual for Fappani, who usually insists on being the only one riding the horses that he shows.

"He's not one of my typical ones. I usually don't share my horses, I am a little bit particular about that," explained Fappani. "Jesse, the owner, has been doing a lot of the work himself, and I just jumped in at times and helped and rode him, and we pretty soon figured out that he was a little more than just a non pro horse."

The stallion, bred by William Newman Jr, is by ARC Gunnabeabigstar and out of ARC Wallas First.

"We had a really great run tonight," said Fappani. "He's a horse that's got a lot of eye appeal. I really thought that this run would fit him because in a big arena, he has got a lot of presence."

Fappani thanked the owners for letting him show the horse, and his team for supporting him as they reach the close of 'two good, and long, weeks.'

Intermediate Open [2] & Intermediate High Point Jason Franks and Black Outt

Jason Franks and Black Outt, by Gunnatrashya out of Magnums Bay Be, won the Intermediate Open [2] and the Skyline Silversmiths Intermediate Open High Point buckle at the NRBC. The pair scored a 73 in both slates, which came after Black Outt missed out on showing in the Non Pro Classic Finals, due to some "bad luck," said Franks.

Black Outt's owner, Aubree Leyva of Hawknest Ranch, asked Franks to show him in the Intermediate Open ancillary class, to great results.

"I just went in not knowing what to expect because he didn't show his best in the Non Pro go-round," Franks explained. "So I was just wanting to cruise around, see what he was going to give me, and he actually just wanted to play the game and be there with me the whole time."

He thanked Martin Muehlstaetter and the whole team behind him, as well as Black Outt's owners for letting him show him.

Limited Open [2] and Limited Open High Point Gloria Spiaggi & CD Gunnas Chex Olena

Riding a horse nicknamed 'Giallo,' which is Italian for yellow, Gloria Spiaggi scored a 144.5 to earn the Limited Open [2] title as well as a Skyline Silversmiths High Point Buckle in the same division.

Giallo is a son of ARC Gunna Sparkya out of Mistis Chex Olena, owned by JCR Performance Horses LLC and bred by Società Agricola CD Horses SRL. He's been in training at Leclair Performance Horses for about six months, but Spiaggi has only been riding him for a few weeks and showed him for the first time at the NRBC.

"We still need to know each other a little better, but there is nothing that I can complain about," she commented. "Today he was with me, and he was a good boy."

Gloria thanked Jared and Karla Leclair, saying, "They've been doing a lot for me and I'm very thankful for them, and all the team and all the clients. It's a very big and nice family."

Rookie Pro High Point Lucas Ocanha & Cee Lo

The Skyline Silversmiths High Point buckle for Rookie Professional went to Lucas Ocanha and Cee Lo—no, not that one. This Cee Lo is a five-year-old gelding by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of Cee My Pistol, bred by Coguaike S.A.

Ocanha and Cee Lo scored a 71 in the first slate to tie for second and a 138 in the second, tying for eighth, to earn the Rookie Pro High Point title at the NRBC.

"He's a really nice horse," said Ocanha. "He's super talented. We're kind of getting there and looking ahead for other shows, but he's been a really nice horse for me. I just need to say thank you to Trevor Dare and to the owners, Dana and Wes Wetherell, for letting me keep playing with him and keep showing him. He's a fun horse."

In addition, he thanked the rest of the team at Trevor Dare Performance Horses.

Rookie Pro [2] ChampionAngela Pratt & Wimpys Little Rubix

Angela Pratt won the Rookie Pro [2] on Wimpys Little Rubix, a six-year-old son of Wimpys Little Step out of Ruby Chic Olena, bred by Thiago Boechat. Pratt coaches owner Wes Wetherell on 'Rubix' and occasionally gets to catch ride him at shows.

Her catch ride at the NRBC in the Rookie Pro [2] earned the two of them a score of 141.5.

"He was a really good boy for me," Pratt said. "Because I coach Wes, I kind of know where the pieces are. Wes maintains him and he does a really good job with him."

Pratt thanked "everyone at Trevor Dare performance horses."

That, of course, includes Trevor and Laura Dare, as well as Rubix's owners, Wes and Dana Wetherell for letting her show their horse, and all of the assistants—Caleb, Lucas, and Damien—and the grooms, Cordray and Tortuga.

Intermediate Non Pro*Paul Lentschke & Cameos Special Gun

Paul Lentschke and Cameos Special Gun, called 'Lefty,' slid into the Intermediate Non Pro championship title in the class that ran in the Ford Arena on Thursday, April 25 at the NRBC. The duo scored a 211.5 for their run.

"He felt really good through the entire pattern," said Lentschke. "Best I've ever felt him."

Lefty is a 2016 stallion by Gunners Special Nite out of BR Sheza Cameo Jac, bred by Hill Country Reiners LLC. Lentschke had a plan for his run going into the pen.

"I had to go hard, go as fast as I could, and we ran as hard and as fast as me and my little pony could," he explained.

Lentschke is a fan of aged events like the ancillary classes and the Non Pro Classic Challenge at the NRBC, which allow horses over eight to get some show pen earnings.

"We need more of them," he stated. "There's a lot of really good horses out there that have a lot of good use left in them. It opens up a lot more chances for people with older horses to show. So I think they're a necessity to continue to grow the industry."

Youth 14-18 & Unrestricted Youth High Point Ava Bush & Born A Shining Star

Ava Bush and Born A Shining Star won two Skyline Silversmith High Point buckles at the NRBC, one for the Youth 14-18 and the other for the Unrestricted Youth. Her mare, called 'Sia,' is a six year old daughter of Star Spangled Whiz out of Shes A Shining Gun, a mare Bush also showed.

Sia was badly sick last year but is strong and healthy now, so it's been almost a year since the two have shown together.

"She's been really good these past two days," said Bush. "I just went in there with the purpose to see how she is. It was just kind of a trial run to see where we're at."

She and Sia scored a 72 in the first slate and a 144 in the second—not bad for a "trial run." Mostly, she's just glad to have her horse back.

"It was definitely a little bit of an emotional roller coaster," recalled Bush. "And so I'm very happy to have her back and just have her feeling well. Winning is just icing on the cake."

Youth 13 & Under [2] & High Point Lilly Walters & Trashy N Hollywood

Lilly Walters claimed the championship of the Youth 13 & Under [2] as well as the Youth 13 & Under High Point at the NRBC.

In the second slate, Walters scored a 142.5, sailing past her previous slate's score of a 69, which had still tied her for first place.

"This is the goofiest horse I've ever had," said Walters. "She's overall a great horse and in the show pen, she's an even better horse."

Walters rode Trashy N Hollywood, a 2018 mare by Gunnatrashya out of Hollywood Barbie. The mare, affectionately called 'Fendi', is owned by Diamond Dub Quarter Horses.

"This mare has always been a great circler," shared Walters. "One thing I do wrong is go too fast in my stops, and that can get me in trouble, but today I held onto her and avoided going too fast."

Walters thanked her mom, dad, sister, and the whole team at Tremblay Performance Horses.

Youth Classic Challenge 14-18 Bella Beck & Cschicchidrem

Bella Beck won the Youth Classic Challenge 14-18 on Cschicchidrem, a 2016 gelding by Magnum Chic Dream out of All The Right Motion, called 'Gus.'

"He's very sweet," Beck said. "He loves treats and carrots, and he's just a good boy all around."

Beck and Gus scored a 143 for their pattern.

"I went in, and he was just with me the whole time," she noted. "He wanted to go, so I let him go, and he was great. He let me build him for each stride, we ran down, I said, 'whoa,' and he was with me the whole time."

Beck thanked her trainer, Shane Brown, and her mom and dad.

Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge Lily Forzani & Annies Custom Pistol

Lily Forzani won the Youth 13 & Under Classic Challenge with a score of 142 aboard fourteen-year-old Annies Custom Pistol.

"I really love circling him," said Forzani. "I can always run him as fast as I want, and he'll always come back to me."

Annies Custom Pistol is by Gunner out of KR Annie-gityergun and bred by McQuay Stables. Forzani said he's a pretty easy keeper, commenting "He's really calm at home. He doesn't ever cause any trouble. He's just a really good horse."

She thanked the entire Pole family, as well as her own family, and "everyone that was watching."

Youth 14-18 [2] Champion Morgan Hobson & Trendsettter

Morgan Hobson took home the title of champion in the Youth 14-18 [2] at the NRBC.

Hobson piloted Trendsettter, a 2017 gelding bred by Rick Ford, is owned by Trendsettter LLC. The gelding is by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Timed To Shine.

“This horse is my best friend,” said Hobson. “It’s taken a long time to kind of get it together with him, but now I feel like I’m bringing out his potential and showing his ability. He is so fancy, and mostly he is my best friend.”

In the pen, Hobson was just hoping to have stayed out of the penalty box, so she was pleasantly surprised to find that she hadn’t just done that; she had scored an impressive 143.5.

Hobson thanked her parents, God, and her trainer, Josh Tishman.

Short Stirrup [2] & High Point Champion

Dylan Pearl & Rambowhizz

Rounding off a fantastic week of championships, Dylan Pearl claimed the 10 & Under Short Stirrups [2] and the 10 & Under Short Stirrups High Point at the NRBC.

“I’m super excited,” said Pearl. “He did really good turns and circles on both days.”

Pearl rode Rambowhizz, a 2017 gelding bred by the Houde & Tremblay Partnership, by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Rose Electric Step. The gelding is owned by Pearl’s grandma, Anita Horn.

While Pearl is very excited about the buckle she won, she has no plans to wear it to school, as she doesn’t want to scratch it, but wants to wear it ‘around her waist, all day and every day,’ the rest of the time.

Pearl thanked her grandma for letting her ride the gelding, and her trainer Trevor Dare.

Youth Walk/ Trot Champion Savannah Izell & Dales Dream

A true rookie to the sport of reining, Savannah Izell claimed her first-ever win in the Youth Walk/Trot at the NRBC.

“My favorite part was everything,” said Izell. “But he did really good in the circles.”

Izell rode Dales Dream, a 2008 gelding by Smart Spook out of Dudes Peppy Sugarett. Izell’s trainers, Chris and Anna Woolsey, own the gelding, who they call ‘Muffin’.

Muffin, a seasoned veteran of the ranch riding, has been Izell’s mount since she began taking lessons a few months ago.

Izell thanked her mom and dad, and her trainers.

Yellowstone Rookie Consolation Champion

Todd Hillis & RSC Ramiro

The Yellowstone Paramount Network Rookie Shootout offered a chance for riders who didn’t make it into the Rookie Shootout on Thursday night to have another chance at winning some prizes in the Consolation Round.

With a score of 69, Colorado resident Todd Hillis and RSC Ramiro were the winners of the consolation round—a class Hillis flew in for after he’d already gone home because he felt he needed to improve on his previous runs.

“On the plane, I told my wife, ‘You’re probably not going to like this, but I’m going to fly back Thursday afternoon because I got to fix that kind of mentally,’” Hillis recalled. “So that’s what I did.”

RSC Ramiro, nicknamed ‘Miguel’ after his breeder, Miguel Cavazos Guerrero, is a nine-year-old gelding by Gunner out of Shesa Wimpy Lilqueen. He’s also called the ‘war horse,’ because “He shows up to work every day,” Hillis said. “Sometimes he knows the pen better than I do, but he’s a nice horse.”

Novice Horse Open L1 [2] & High Point Bud Lyon & Sumac Gunnabeflashy

Bud Lyon and Sumac Gunnabeflashy shared the co-championship with three other riders in the Novice Horse Open L1 [1] and won the Skyline Silversmiths High Point Buckle in the same division.

His mount, a seven-year-old son of Gunnatrashya out of Chics Grateful Whiz, bred by Donald Sobey, is “the most decorated ranch riding horse in the industry right now,” said Lyon.

Owner Leslie Lange graciously let Lyon’s wife, Kim, show him in the Rookie classes but, when she had to leave the NRBC to get back to work, Lyon made the impromptu decision to show in the Novice Horse Open.

“It’s really a testament to him to be able to change gears and from the ranch classes to the reining side and take care of Kim in the rookie classes, then step up and get to be co-champion in an Open class,” stated Lyon, who then joked: “I definitely want to thank my staff, as well as the owner, Leslie, for not taking this horse away from me, and my wife, for unknowingly letting me show her horse today.”

Novice Horse Open L2 [2] Champions Novice Horse Open L3 Co- Champions

Peter DeFreitas & Dodgin Bullets

Peter DeFreitas and six-year-old Dodgin Bullets took two titles in the second slate of the Novice Horse Open ancillary class at the NRBC, one as the champions of the L2 and one as the co-champions of the L2.

“She’s been pretty consistent,” DeFreitas said of the mare, by Guns R For Shootin out of Billie Jean Dun It. “I’ve been pretty successful with her.”

That they did, with a score of 73.5 in the second slate.

“This mare is pretty talented,” DeFreitas went on. “She’s not quite a Level 4 Derby horse, and that’s all I’m eligible for this year, so I wanted to show her in the Novice Horse, just because there’s good added money.”

‘Bullet’ was bred by Humphrey Quarter Horses and is owned by Rancho Monsivais LLC, who DeFreitas thanked, along with his wife, and everyone on his team.

Novice Horse Level 1 [2] Co-Champion
Abigayle Mixon & A Custom Spook
Novice Horse Level 2 [2] Reserve Co-Champion
Novice Horse Level 3 [2] Co-Champion
Abigayle Mixon & My Whizard Dream

In what was nearly a clean sweep of the Novice Horse classes at the NRBC, Abigayle Mixon claimed the Novice Horse Level 1 [2] Co-Championship, the Novice Horse Level 3 [2] Co-Championship, and the Novice Horse Level 2 [2] Reserve Co-Championship aboard two geldings, both of whom are owned by Michelle and Kirk George.

A Custom Spook, a 2015 gelding by Spooks Gotta Whiz out of Custom Princess, claimed the Level One Co-Championship and the Level 2 Reserve Co-Championship. Of this horse, Mixon said, “I didn’t get him shown very well in the derby here, and we all had some tough luck. I decided to enter him in the novice just to make a confidence-building run.”

Aboard the other gelding, My Whizard Dream, Mixon claimed the Level 3 Co-Championship. The 2017 gelding is by Magnum Chic Dream out of Miss Poco Whizard, bred by Andre Lauzon.

“He’s been in my barn now with a couple of different owners, and he’s just cool,” said Mixon. “He is super quiet, super chill, and easy to show. Since I was coming here for the derby, I asked his owners if I could bring him along just to show him here.”

Mixon thanked Michelle and Kirk George for the opportunity to ride both of these geldings and for being great supporters.

Novice Horse Open L1 [2] Co-Champion
Giada Camparsi & UB Amazingness

Giada Camparsi and UB Amazingness joined a four-way tie for the Novice Horse Open L1 [2] title with a score of 72.5. Her mount goes by the barn name ‘Sage.’ She’s a five-year-old daughter of Gunna-trashya out of UB Stylin With Me.

Sage had been turned out to pasture with the intent for her to become a broodmare until two months ago, when owner Lorenzo Lotti let Camparsi show her one more time.

“I could just push her and she was right there with me,” said Camparsi, referring to their run in the Novice Horse Open. “The best thing she does is stopping, and she just nailed it three times, so I was really happy.”

Camparsi thanked Lotti for being “a great customer and friend,” as well as her husband, and her entire team.
